Area Family Planning Clinics Scheduled

PARKERSBURG - The Mid-Ohio Valley Health Department announces its upcoming Family Planning Clinics for Roane and Wirt Counties.

Family planning services include pregnancy testing; information for those trying to achieve pregnancy; medical history; physical, gynecological, breast and testicular exams; laboratory services; diagnosis and limited treatment of sexually transmitted diseases; contraceptive supplies; education and counseling and referrals for medical issues and sterilization procedures.

Eligibility requirements are as follows:

- Female/male of childbearing age
- Women seeking pregnancy
- Income is at or below 250% of the current Federal Poverty Level and uninsured or underinsured

- Fees assessed on gross monthly income and family size according to the Federal Poverty Guidelines

- Other programs available if annual income is over the income guidelines.

The Wirt and Roane County clinics are held once a month in their prospective counties at their local MOV Health Department and require appointments.

The Roane County Family Planning Clinic will be on Wednesday, Jan. 18, at 200 E. Main St., in Spencer. Appointments may be made at 304-927-1480.

The Wirt County Family Planning Clinic will be on Tuesday, Jan. 24, at 90 Senior Circle, in Elizabeth. Appointments can be made by calling 304-275-3131.
